

Rosalie Snocken

Profile:

Rosalie is a pupil at Old Square Chambers. After reading Maths and Philosophy at Oxford, she gained a distinction in her Graduate Diploma of Law and was then graded Outstanding when completing the Bar Vocational Course.

Before and after her BVC, Rosalie joined Irwin Mitchell's serious injury team, working on workplace accidents, RTAs and occupiers' liability matters. These cases ranged from small fast track matters to £multimillion catastrophic injury claims, with a particular focus on those involving major brain injury.
